

COLORADO STATEWIDE EXTENDED STUDIES
SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM
Colorado State University
2011-2012

The colleges and universities that sponsor the Extended Studies Scholarship Program include: Adams State College, Colorado School of Mines, Colorado State University, Fort Lewis College, Mesa State College, Metropolitan State College, University of Colorado at Boulder, University of Colorado at Colorado Springs, University of Colorado at Denver, University of Colorado Health Sciences Center, University of Northern Colorado, Colorado State University - Pueblo, and Western State College. Please apply for this scholarship through the institution from which you plan to take courses.

Criteria

All of the funds shall be used for scholarships for Extended Studies students who enroll either in credit or noncredit courses. The scholarship shall apply only to tuition and course-specific fees for one or two courses per term and shall not be granted for student's expenses, books or other course materials. Different amounts may be awarded to different applicants. Recipients must be Colorado residents. Financial need is not a mandatory criterion.

To be eligible for the Statewide Extended Studies Scholarship Program, students must meet the following criteria:

- be 25 years old or older at the time of application or have a nontraditional student life circumstance (single parent, etc.)
- be enrolled in CSU OnlinePlus for a minimum of one course (including distance and professional development courses) during the 2011-2012 academic year
- have not been admitted to the University for the 2011-2012 academic year

Students who have not obtained a bachelor's degree will be given preference.

Incomplete applications will not be considered. Scholarships will typically be in the amount of approximately $360 or less. Recipients will be notified in writing. Awards are to be used exclusively for OnlinePlus (Division of Continuing Education) courses and course-specific fees.
