

Adult Basic Education

Graduate Certificate

COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY
ONLINE

Overview

CSU's online Graduate Certificate in Adult Basic Education provides training and personal development opportunities for those teaching, or wishing to teach, in adult basic education (ABE) programs. With a focus on foundational skills, methods, and theories for teaching adult learners, the online program seeks to develop educators who can create effective curriculum and learning environments for their students.

Learn how to effectively teach and facilitate learning for adults

This certificate is taught by instructors who bring contemporary academic research and years of experience to your online classes and teach you the latest in instructional design, assessment, and evaluation. You will:

- Learn new techniques, tools, and processes for teaching and facilitating.
- Be encouraged to directly apply what you are learning to your professional settings.
- Understand how to better design learning settings to meet your learners' needs.
- Become a better practitioner of adult teaching and learning.
- Describe and evaluate different concepts of adult learning.
- Identify and articulate what makes an effective adult learning facilitator.
- Learn how to create an inclusive, challenging, and effective learning environment.
- Analyze and evaluate methods of instruction.
- Gain knowledge and skills specifically applicable to your teaching environment and learners.

Curriculum

- EDAE 520 – Adult Education (3 cr., fall and spring)
- EDAE 530 – Adult Basic Education (3 cr., fall and spring)
- EDAE 540 – Teaching English as a Second Language to Adult Learners (3 cr., fall and summer)
- EDAE 620 – Processes and Methods (3 cr., fall and summer)

The four courses required for the online Graduate Certificate in Adult Basic Education also fulfill the Adult Basic Education Authorization (ABEA) requirements for educators in Colorado. The ABEA is issued through Educator Licensing at the Colorado Department of Education. In addition to coursework, the ABEA is obtained through documented evidence and demonstrated competency in foundational knowledge in the field of adult basic education and family literacy.
