How to Apply
Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) in Education and Human Resource Studies – Higher Education Leadership Specialization

Application Deadline
Summer semester (fall and spring admission are not available): March 1

1 Review Admission Requirements
- Master’s degree from a regionally accredited institution
- At least two years of professional work experience in a higher education institution setting or at least two years of professional work experience within an organization that is engaged in work related to higher education
- The GRE scores are required for applicants that do not have a final undergraduate GPA and a master’s-level GPA of at least 3.00.

2 Prepare Application Materials
- Statement of purpose
  » Your professional and personal long-term goals
  » Why you wish to pursue doctoral studies and how this opportunity supports your long-term goals
  » Tell us about your research interests with some explanation and detail, and if there is a specific faculty member with whom you wish to work
  » A summary of how your previous experiences have prepared you to be engaged in doctoral studies
  » A brief statement of your beliefs about higher education and its relevance to society
- Resume or vita
  » Record of collegiate work, including names of institutions, periods of attendance, and degrees earned.
  » Record of all professional employment including dates of service (including military).
  » List of publications, exhibitions, awards, or other recognitions.
  » List of service activities, including professional, community, and charitable activities.
- Three letters of recommendation
  Three professional recommendations are required. Recommenders should be able to speak to your current leadership ability and your ability to do doctoral work. You will provide information about your recommenders in the online application. CSU will contact them with instructions and a link to a secure form they will submit on your behalf.

3 Complete Online Application
Complete the online graduate application and pay the nonrefundable application processing fee (payable online). As soon as you have completed the required information, please submit your application. You do not need to wait for recommendations to move your application forward.
- Select “Educ & Hum Res Studies PhD/Higher Educ Leadership – Distance” when choosing the program of study.

4 Request Transcripts
Request one official transcript of all collegiate work completed from every institution attended, whether or not you received a degree from those institutions. Transcripts from Colorado State University are not required. Official transcripts can either be mailed in or sent as e-transcripts.

Send e-transcripts to: gradadmissions@colostate.edu

5 Submit Test Scores
GRE scores are required for applicants who do not have both a cumulative undergraduate GPA and a cumulative masters/professional level GPA of at least 3.00. Cumulative GPAs are calculated using all undergraduate credits leading to completion of a bachelor’s degree and all graduate-level credits leading to completion of a master’s degree or terminal degree. If both GPAs are above 3.00, GRE scores are not required. Submit official GRE General Test scores through the Educational Testing Service (select institution code: 4075, leave the department code blank). Scores are typically received by the University 4-6 weeks after your testing date.

• All three sections — verbal, quantitative, and analytical — must be submitted. Photocopies are not accepted.
• A GRE Preparation course is available face-to-face and online through CSU.

Check Your Application Status
View your application status at any time to ensure your application checklist is complete or to check on updates. Once your complete application, including supporting materials, is received, the department admission committee will review your application and promptly notify you of their decision.
